Packaging and Assembly Solutions

Our factories across Metropolitan Sydney deliver a range of high quality packaging and assembly solutions for some of Australia's largest companies including various domestic and international airlines.

Packaging and assembly solutions include:

- cutlery packing
- collating and packaging
- hand assembly of kits
- mail house
- shrink-wrapping
- labelling and barcoding
- promotional assembly

Our employees work within an environment of continuous improvement. We pride ourselves on delivering in full on time.

Achieve Australia is Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point (HACCP) endorsed. We specialise in the packaging of both perishables and non-perishables.

Enclaves

Enclaves are small workgroups of people with disability who provide employment in a host business environment. Each workgroup receives on-the-job training and supervision to perform a full service job or series of tasks as identified by the host business or employer. We currently have work groups across several sites in Sydney.

Curly Girl

Curly Girl Stainless Steel Scourers are proudly produced and manufactured in Australia by people with disability.

The range of quality durable scourers can be utilised in households and commercial environments and will not lose their shape after multiple usage. They can also be used for sound reduction in industrial environments. The products are available in a range of sizes from 20gm-60gm.

Creating Jobs for People with Disability

Importantly, customers assist us to create job opportunities for people with disability and achieving social inclusion in the workplace.

The business solutions we provide and our commercial enterprises enable supported employees to develop skills and career paths through training and on-the-job experiences. This all contributes towards making a positive impact on their lives. All proceeds from Commercial Enterprises help us to continuously improve our provision of services and programs.

About Achieve Australia

Achieve Australia is a not-for-profit community business operating across Metropolitan Sydney.

We support over 550 people with disability or who experience disadvantage across accommodation, employment and day services with plans to introduce a respite service.

Our driving principle is to support people with disability to learn and maintain life and work skills, develop relationships, make choices about their lives and participate in community activities.

Our services are flexible, follow our person-centred philosophy and encourage independence.
