

Meeting new people from Achieve Australia

This is an Easy Read letter to tell you something good.

It should be easy to understand.

You can ask someone to help you read this letter so you can ask questions if you want to.

Next month is October.

achieve australia	Around late October the staff who come to your house will start working for Achieve Australia but still support you.
	Your home will be looked after by Inclusive Housing Australia
	If anything in your home needs fixing, Inclusive Housing Australia will arrange this
	The staff will work for Achieve Australia instead of Mercy Community.

	Nothing much will change for you.
	You will still live in the same house.
	The staff you know will still come to support you each day and take you out.
	You will still do all the things you do now.

	You will still have the same friends.
	You will meet some new friendly people from Achieve Australia.
	They will visit to say hello and get to know you.
	They feel happy and lucky to get to meet you.

	Your family know about this.
	Achieve Australia has been supporting people like you for 70 years.
	They have lots of training for staff and good ways of doing things to make sure people they support live a good life.
	Achieve Australia and Inclusive Housing Australia want to do everything to make sure you are happy.

The head of Achieve Australia is Jo-Anne Hewitt and she has written this letter to welcome you

The head of Inclusive Housing Australia is Laura Green and she welcomes you as well
